TNS EXPANDS SALES FORCE IN AUSTRALIA

August 26 2008, Sydney- Transaction Network Services (TNS) has appointed a new Sales Director to strengthen its team in Australia and the Asia Pacific region.

Arthur Bushell has been appointed as Sales Director and will manage the major accounts in the Point Of Sale (POS) business for Asia Pacific.

Formerly the head of sales for Pulse International, a processing service provider located in St Leonards, New South Wales (NSW), Bushell brings with him over 20 years of experience in the financial services and payments industries.

Chris Hughes, Vice President of sales, TNS Asia Pacific, said: "We are pleased to have Arthur join our team. He brings with him a wealth of experience that will help strengthen our sales capability here in Australia and throughout the Asia Pacific region."

Bushell resides with his wife and two children in Blaxland, NSW. When not working, he enjoys golf and squash.

About Transaction Network Services

Transaction Network Services (TNS) is an international data communications company that enables payments, money and voices, to move around the world.

TNS' mission is to enable the world to transact. It does this through a broad range of networking, communications and value added services, which it provides to many of the world's leading retailers, banks/processors, telecommunications companies and financial markets.

Since its inception in 1990, TNS has designed and implemented multiple data networks, each designed specifically for the transport of transaction-oriented data. TNS' networks support a variety of widely accepted communications protocols and are designed to be scalable and accessible by multiple methods. Today, TNS has offices throughout the world serving customers in 28 countries with the ability to provide services in other countries.
